

THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA

No. 14 OF 1968

I ASSENT,

Julius K. Nyerere
.....
President

13TH FEBRUARY, 1968

An Act to prescribe certain forms relating to qualifications of Members of the National Assembly, to prescribe the procedure for proceedings before the High Court for Declaration as to whether the seat of any member has become vacant and to provide for matters incidental thereto and connected therewith

[2ND MARCH, 1968]

ENACTED by the Parliament of the United Republic of Tanzania.

1. This Act may be cited as the National Assembly (Qualification of Members) (Forms and Procedure) Act, 1968, shall be read as one with the Constitution and shall come into operation on the 2nd of March, 1968.

Short title,
construction and commencement

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“the Constitution” means the Interim Constitution of Tanzania, 1965;

Interpretation
Acts 1965
No. 43

“member” means a member of the National Assembly other than a Regional Commissioner who holds his seat in accordance with paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of section 24 of the Constitution.

PART I

PETITIONS FOR DECLARATION BY THE HIGH COURT

3. Where the Attorney-General has reason to believe that the seat in the National Assembly of any member has become vacant by virtue of the provisions of paragraphs (h), (i), (j), (k) or (l) of subsection 2 of section 27 of the Constitution he may petition the High Court for a declaration that such member has by operation of subsection (1) of section 35 of the Constitution vacated his seat as a member.

Petition by Attorney-General

4. Every petition under section 2 shall contain—

(a) the name and address of the member in respect of whom the petition is made; and

Contents of petition

- (b) a statement of facts on which the petition is founded.
- Member's right to appear
 5. A copy of every petition lodged under section 3 shall be served on the member in respect of whom the petition is made and such member shall have a right to appear and defend the petition.
- Procedure
 Acts 1966 No. 49
 6. Every petition under section 3 shall, insofar as may be practicable, be tried in the same manner as if it were a civil suit, and save as in this Act may be otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code, 1966 shall, insofar as the same may be applicable, apply to petitions under this Act.
- Witnesses
 7.—(1) Witnesses shall be subpoenaed and sworn in the same manner, as nearly as circumstances admit, as in a trial by the High Court in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction and shall, without prejudice to the provisions of any other law, be subject to the same penalties for the giving of false evidence or for non attendance.
 (2) On the trial of a petition under this Act, the court may by order compel the attendance of any person as a witness who appears to it to be in a position to give relevant information, and any person refusing to obey such order shall be guilty of a contempt of court. The court may examine any witness so compelled to attend or any person in court, although such witness or person is not called and examined by any party to the petition. After the examination of a witness as aforesaid by the court, such witness may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner or the member or both of them.
- Determination of court
 8.—(1) At the conclusion of the trial of a petition under this Act the court shall determine whether the member in respect of whom it is made has vacated his seat in the National Assembly and may make such order for the costs of the petition as it may think fit.
 (2) Where the court makes an order for payment of costs by the Attorney-General such costs shall be paid by the Government.
 (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 6 no order for costs against the Attorney-General shall be executed or enforced save in accordance with the law for the time being in force relating to execution of decrees or orders for payment of money passed or made against the Government.

PART II
