PART II
PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES OF THE ASSEMBLY AND ITS OFFICERS

3. There shall be freedom of speech and debate in the Assembly and such freedom of speech and debate shall not be liable to be questioned in any court or place outside the Assembly.

4.-(1) There shall be a flag of the Assembly which shall be of the description specified in the Schedule to this Act.

(2) Subject to the provisions of any written law regulating the use, flying or hoisting of the national flag, the flag of the Assembly may be hoisted at any building which is designated for use as office of the Assembly within the United Republic.

(3) Subject to subsections (2) and (4), the flag of the Assembly may be used by a member while he-

(a) is in his office within a constituency to which he is elected or in another office designated for use by members of Parliament at the District or Regional Headquarters;

(b) is in his personal car while proceeding on a journey within the United Republic.

(4) The flag of the Assembly shall not be used by a member while travelling within the City of Dar es Salaam, the Municipality of Dodoma, the Municipality of Zanzibar or in such other place where there are restrictions under the law or practice regarding the use of flags.

(5) Without prejudice to the provisions of subsections (2), (3) and (4), the Assembly may make regulations for the better carrying out of the purposes of this Act.

[s.3A]
5.-(1) Subject to this Act and to any statutory or other provisions regulating the convening and organisation of such meetings, a member shall be free to hold public meetings in his constituency and all responsible authorities shall facilitate them in a manner as convenient to the member as is possible under the circumstances.

(2) Any person who causes obstruction at such public meetings commits an offence and is liable to be proceeded against by the relevant authority in accordance with law. \[s.4\]

6. No civil or criminal proceedings shall be instituted against any member or words spoken before, or written in a report to the Assembly or a committee, or by reason of any matter or thing brought by him therein by petition, bill, or motion or otherwise or for words spoken or act done in bona fide pursuance of a decision or proceeding of the Assembly or a committee. \[s.5\]

7. No member shall be liable for arrest for any civil debt except for a debt the contracting of which constitutes a criminal offence. \[s.6\]

8.-(1) No stranger shall be entitled, as of right, to enter or to remain within the precincts of the Assembly.

(2) The Speaker may issue such orders as he may, in his discretion, deem necessary or desirable for the regulation of the admittance of strangers to, and the conduct of strangers within, the precincts of the Assembly Chamber.

(3) Copies of orders made under this section shall be duly authenticated by the Clerk and exhibited in a conspicuous position in the precincts of the Assembly, and such copies when so authenticated and exhibited shall be deemed to be sufficient notice to all persons affected thereby.

[s.7]

9. The Speaker or any officer authorized by the Speaker may, at any time order any stranger to withdraw from the precincts of the Assembly.

[s.8]

10.-(1) No member or officer and no person employed to take or transcribe minutes of evidence before the Assembly or any Committee shall give evidence elsewhere respecting the contents of such minutes or evidence, or of the contents of any document laid before the Assembly or Committee, as the case may be, or respecting any proceedings or examination held before the Assembly or Committee, as the case may be, without the special leave of the Assembly first had and obtained.

(2) The special leave referred to in subsection (1) may be given during a recess or adjournment by the Speaker.

[s.9]

11. Subject to this Act and to any statutory or other provisions regulating the disclosure of information by public officers, a member may, on request by himself, be furnished with information by the public officer concerned.

[s.10]

12. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, no summons issued by any court of the United Republic or outside the United Republic in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction shall be served or executed within the precinct of the Assembly while the Assembly is sitting, or through the Speaker or any officer of the Assembly, nor shall any member be arrested on civil process, save by leave of the Speaker first obtained, while he is within the precincts of the Assembly and while the Assembly is sitting. [s.12]

13.- (1) It is declared for the avoidance of doubt that subject to the Constitution and the Standing Orders of the Assembly, the Assembly has all such powers and jurisdiction as may be necessary for inquiring into, judging and pronouncing upon the commission of any act, matter or thing, not amounting to an offence under this Act, which is a breach of Parliamentary privileges.

(2) The Speaker shall have the power, subject to the Standing Orders of the Assembly, to determine whether or not any act, matter or thing is one into which the Assembly may inquire, judge and pronounce upon.

(3) The Assembly or, as the case may be, a Committee may, in relation to any act, matter or thing, recommend to the Speaker that he requests the Attorney-General to take steps necessary to bring to trial before a court of competent jurisdiction any person connected with the commission of an offence under this Act.

(4) The Speaker shall, either of his own accord or upon a recommendation of a Committee, report to the Attorney General all acts, matters and things amounting to offences under this Act, committed by any person and the Attorney-General shall proceed in relation to such report in accordance with law.

(5) Where the Attorney General upon request from the Speaker made under subsection (3), takes any step necessary to bring to trial any person in connection with the commission of any offence under this Act, he may inform the Speaker on the step so taken under subsection (4).

(6) The court of competent jurisdiction for offences committed under this Act, shall be as so prescribed by the law.

14. The Assembly may by resolution adopt a code of conduct for Members of Parliament.

15.- (1) The Assembly, any Standing Committee or any sessional committee may, subject to provisions of section 20 and section 22 of this Act, order any person to attend before the Assembly or before such committee and to give evidence or to produce any document in the possession or under the control of such person.

(2) The powers conferred by subsection (1) of this section on a sessional committee may be exercised by any other committee which is specially authorised by a resolution of the Assembly to exercise such powers in respect of any matter or question specified in the resolution.

16.- (1) Any order to attend to give evidence or to produce documents before the Assembly or a Committee shall be notified to the person required to attend or to produce the documents by a summons under the hand of the Clerk issued under the direction of the Speaker.

(2) In every summons under subsection (1) of this section there shall be stated the time when and the place where the person summoned is required to attend and the particular documents which he is required to produce and the summons shall be served on the person mentioned therein either by delivering to him a copy thereof or by leaving a copy thereof at his usual or last known place of abode in the United Republic, with some adult person; and there shall be paid or tendered to the person summoned, if he does not reside within four miles of the place of attendance specified in the summons, such sum for his expenses as may be prescribed by Standing Orders.

(3) A summons under this section may be served by an officer of the Assembly or by a police officer. [s.14]

17.- (1) If a person to whom a summons under section 14 is directed does not attend before the Assembly or the Committee at the time and place mentioned therein, the Speaker may, upon being satisfied that the summons was duly served or that the person to whom the summons is directed willfully avoids service, issue a warrant to apprehend him and bring him, at the time and place to be stated in the warrant before the Assembly or Committee.

(2) A warrant issued under this section shall be executed by a police officer.

(3) The Speaker, on the issue of a warrant under this section, may, if he thinks fit, by an appropriate endorsement on the warrant, direct that the person named in the warrant be released after arrest on his entering into such a recognisance before a court for his appearance before the Assembly or Committee as may be required in the endorsement. [s.15]

18.- (1) The Assembly or an authorised Committee may require that any facts, matters and things relating to the subject matter of inquiry before the Assembly or such Committee be verified or otherwise ascertained by Privileges of witnesses the oral examination of witnesses, and may cause any such witnesses to be examined upon oath.

(2) An oath required to be taken under the provisions of this section may be administered by the Clerk or by any other person appointed by the Assembly for that purpose or, in the case of a witness before a Committee, by the Chairman of the Committee or by the member presiding in the absence of the Chairman, or by the secretary to the Committee. [s.16]

19.- (1) Where any person ordered to attend to give evidence or to produce any document before the Assembly refuses to answer any question that may be put to him or to produce any such document on the ground that the same is of a private nature and does not affect the subject of inquiry, the Speaker may excuse the answering of such question or the production of such document, or may order the answering or the production thereof.

(2) Where any person ordered to attend or to give evidence or produce any document before any Committee refuses to answer any question that may be put to him or to produce any such document on the ground that the same is of a private nature and does not affect the subject of inquiry, the Chairman of the Committee may report such refusal to the Speaker with the reasons thereof; and the Speaker may thereupon excuse the answering of such question or the production of such document.

[s.17]

20.- (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3), every person summoned to attend to give evidence or to produce any document before the Assembly or a Committee thereof shall be entitled, in respect of such evidence or the disclosure of any communication or the production of any such document, to the same rights and privileges as before a court of law.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (1), no public officer shall, except with the consent of the President-

(a) give, before the Assembly or a Committee thereof, any document;

(b) produce before the Assembly or a Committee thereof, any document; or

(c) furnish to the Secretariat of the Assembly any document or information, relating to any naval, military or air force matter; nor shall secondary evidence be received by or produced before the Assembly or a Committee of the contents of any such document.

(3) Unless the President otherwise directs no public officer shall refuse to-

(a) give, before the Assembly or a Committee thereof any evidence;

(b) produce, before the Assembly or a Committee thereof, any document; or

(c) furnish to the Secretariat of the Assembly any information, relating to the correspondence of any civil department or any matter affecting the public service; and secondary evidence shall not be received by or produced before the Assembly or a Committee of the contents of any such document which the President has directed shall not be produced. Such directions shall only be given when in the opinion of the President it would be contrary to the public interest to give such evidence or to produce such document as aforesaid.

(4) Except in the case of criminal proceedings under section 102, 106, 108 or 109 of the Penal Code or an offence against this Act, an answer by a person to a question put by the Assembly or a Committee shall not, in any civil or criminal proceedings, be admissible in evidence.

[s.18]

Evidence of proceedings in Assembly or Committee not to be given without leave
